WELCOME TO THE NOVEMBER 2016 TRARALGON FARMERS' MARKET

PLEASE, remember to set up your Statement of Trade on Streatrader and get your liability insurance up-to-date. The council inspector has already visited a number of you and she won't stop any time soon.

A chance of a shower or two in the morning, breezy and temps from 7°C to 20°C . Summer is around the corner (we hope)?

Have a good day - Fred & Geoff

News Flash:

Our Christmas Twilight Market to be moved to Victory Park

Same place as we were back in January 2013 The Reason behind our decision for the move is that it is not possible to close off Kay St on a Friday afternoon without a lot of problems with all day parking and also the car park area would not be available to us.

When setting up your marquee at Victory Park Do Not use pegs - you may damage the under ground sprinkler system, please use your Weights.

SOME REMINDERS

Please remember that all Marquees are to be on the roads, not the grass, and they must have weights for safety reasons. It is your responsibility to make sure that they are fitted correctly If they need water please fill them from the water tap near the library entrance.

From today the site that you are in will be your permanent site with a occasional exceptions.

RUBBISH:- If you bring it, you remove it, whether it be containers or food scraps. We committed to Council that we didn't need street sweepers etc. (at our cost!), so please leave your site and its surrounds in the same condition you found it.

The Car park area is becoming it's own little part of the market and as the weather improves so will this area along with the rest of the market.

Our thanks to all who braved the unknown.

Welcome to our new stall holders

WE have 2 new stalls on trial this month and if suitable will be slotted a space as they become available. We welcome them and wish them a successful day.

They are:

Blueberry Lane Berries
Grand Ridge Organics

They will add to the variety in our market and help us to be the best market in the region.

ECO SHOPPING BAGS & FRIDGE CALENDARS

As you discovered last market, the new Eco Bags are now available.

Also in stock are our 2017 Market Fridge Calendars which we will hand out today.

Want more? See Fred or Geoff or the Lions at the BBQ area.
