WELCOME TO THE FEBRUARY 2019 TRARALGON FARMERS' MARKET

We hope you all enjoyed our Australia Day market and, before you ask, we will not be revisiting the park again in 2019.

Weather today looks good - partly cloudy, light winds and temps from 12°C to 27°C

Have a great day - Kevin, Geoff & the team

MARKET RE-ORGANISATION

You may have noticed that the carpark area of the market is now empty and the previous occupants are now scattered around the main body of the market.

This has become necessary as the construction of the Arts Centre looms closer. The current car park area is part of the redevelopment and we are certain stallholders would have to move come what may.

Relocation was therefor paramount and we hope everyone is happy with their new spot.

MARKET WEBSITE

The purpose of the market web site is to promote our market and the goods and services on offer. This means we are keen to include pen pictures of any of our traders.

If you want to include (or raise) your profile on the market website - speak to Kevin or Geoff or email us at admin@traralgonfarmersmarket.org.au

HEALTH AND SAFETY REMINDERS

NO WEIGHTS NO STALL - YOU WILL BE ASKED TO TAKE YOUR MARQUEE DOWN.

All electrical leads MUST have a current test tag attached.

All gas appliances must be checked for leaks etc. before use.

STREATRADER

We cannot emphasise this enough:

PLEASE, make sure you have a current Certificate of Trade. Council has assured us that they will check online and inspect without warning. It is your responsibility.

2019 Calendars

For those of you who asked - sorry, we did not produce a 2019 wall calendar for 2019 - 2018 may well have been our last, but you never know.

However, our 2019 Fridge Calendars are still available and you can get them (and carry bags) from the Lions BBQ area.
