WELCOME TO THE JULY 2016 TRARALGON FARMERS' MARKET

Today is expected to reinforce the fact that we are in mid-winter with a good chance of a shower and a maximum temperature of 12°C. Please stay safe - the ground around you will be likely very slick.

May the weather be kind to us - have a good day, Fred

The Snow Train is Coming 12 Noon TODAY

Could you all please stay back until 1.30 PM -if you can.

They should get here about 12.30PM. Please discuss with Fred or Geoff if you have any queries .

Seymour Heritage Rail Centre X31 Locomotive Heritage Train Tour

On Saturday 27th August (August Farmers Market Day) the Seymour Heritage Rail Centre are running a train, pulled by 50 year old locomotive X31.

The train will arrive in Traralgon around 12 Noon.

The Centre is advertising Traralgon Farmers Market extensively across it potential passengers.

As a stallholder, are you prepared to stay back a bit longer past 1 PM?

Please discuss this with Fred or Geoff ASAP.

ECO-BAGS

Our new supply of Eco-Bags has been ordered with only minor cosmetic changes.

Supply could be a couple of months away, but we will distribute them as soon as we can.

Thank you for your enthusiastic support .

CHANGES ARE COMING TO THE MARKET

Fred & Geoff met with council officers this week to discuss the state of the market area and what fixes and options are available.

Short answer - WE HAVE TO GET OFF THE GRASS SOON!

We are not only damaging the grass, the trees are also taking a big hit as we and our customers compact the ground around our precious Elm trees.

We probably have 2 options: -

1. To try and fit on the old fire track(there may not be enough room).
2. To have the road on the City Service Centre side closed and set up on the roadway.

We need your ideas and suggestions, so Fred and Geoff will be talking to as many stallholders as possible today.

Reminder - Safety First at the Market

It is a requirement of our market that all electrical leads are tagged and current, cook tops are fixed and unable to be tipped, gas bottles are current and stable.

If you have any doubts, discuss the matter with Fred, our onsite safety officer.

Next Market - Saturday, 20th August 2016, 8am to 1pm
