WELCOME TO THE NOVEMBER 2017 TRARALGON FARMERS' MARKET

Last month was a good market from all reports and we are looking forward to a full market today with 3 new stallholders.

What a week weather-wise leading up to today. Four days of 30° and the odd storm or two just to keep it interesting. Today we can apparently expect a sunny morning with light winds and a top of 32°C before a good chance of rain &/or storms in the afternoon.

Have a good day - Fred, Geoff & the team

What a Relief: No need to hold on; NEW SUPERLOOS ARE NOW OPEN

The new toilets at the service Centre will be opened from today, providing relief to stallholder's and Market users. They will be opened from 6.00am to 2.00pm on market days by a timer with access from the outside.

Also the water tap has been replaced. Many thanks to the council for this.
