MARKET NEWS

All relocations of stalls from within the carpark have now been done and we hope everyone is happy. Any problems, please talk to Kevin.

For some years now we have coped with collecting stall fees on the day of the market despite occasionally suffering late or no reason non-attendance. Whilst we don't necessarily have a queue of potential stall holders, it is quite off-putting and costs the market.

We are therefore considering moving to a payment in advance scenario in an effort to increase the incentive for people to attend.

Of course there will be occasions when attendance is impossible and market management will always listen and take the circumstances into account.

Please feel free to discuss this proposition with Kevin or Geoff so that we can get a feel for the idea.

2019 Calendars

For those of you who asked - sorry, we did not produce a wall calendar for 2019 - last year's may well have been our last, but you never know.

However, our 2019 Fridge Calendars are still available and you can get them (and carry bags) from the Lions BBQ area.

MARKET WEBSITE

The purpose of the market web site is to promote our market and the goods and services on offer. This means we are keen to include pen pictures of any of our traders.

If you want to include (or raise) your profile on the market website - speak to Kevin or Geoff or email us at admin@traralgonfarmersmarket.org.au
