WELCOME TO THE JUNE TRARALGON FARMERS' MARKET

Thursday was the shortest day of the year, so Winter is officially in full swing. Last month the weather was kind to us and sales were generally up - so here's hoping for today ...

Weather is predicted cold with a chance of a shower or two, temps 5° to 14°C - interesting!!

Have a good day ... Fred, Geoff, Kevin & the team

Stop Press

Karen and her Husband (Meg Moo's Macarons) are proud to announce the safe arrival of granddaughter Morgan Grace. Our congrats to all.

PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARDS

We have done it again! Both the market and Meg Moo's Macaron's are finalists with the people's choice awards

We both won last year and we will let you know the results next month.

Our thanks to all stall holders for making this such a great Market ; well done to all.

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN - FOOD LABELLING

New laws come in force from 1 JULY 2018 regarding the new requirements for the labelling of food in Australia. The laws are too complex to cover here, but they will affect many of our stall holders.

You can find a wealth of information starting at <http://www.foodstandards.gov.au>

OR

Geoff or Fred has a copy of the Factsheet from that site for you to read - just ask.

ALSO - be aware that Victoria is close to legislating to ban single use plastic bags . PLEASE have a plan whether it be paper bags or our Eco bags. But - please have a plan.
